

How do I love you, you ask?
Eric Binnion

I reply-

Dear,

I love you more than my life itself.

I love you more than the sun rising.

I love YOUR family, of all things!

I love your beautiful face,
your deep brown eyes,
your amazingly cute feet,
and your seemingly perfect body.

I love your person,
your expressions,
your playful rejection of my love,
your passionate talks,
your poetry,
your laughter and companionship.

I love your displays of emotion-
your hug,
your kiss,
your kind punch,
your little games.

Dare I say the most powerful way I love you?

I love the way you make me feel.
